For transactions involving the above-mentioned individuals that require approval by the GMS or the BOD, VAB must disclose information on such resolutions in accordance with information disclosure regulations.
4. Members of BOD, members of Supervisory Board, and the CEO must report to the BOD and the Supervisory Board on transactions between VAB and companies in which the above members have been founding members or have served as members of BOD or Directors (CEOs) within the past 03 years before the transaction date, as well as transactions between VAB and companies where their related persons serve as Members of BOD, Directors (CEOs), or major shareholders.
5. Members of BOD must not vote on transactions that provide benefits to themselves or their related persons, even if the benefits in such transactions have not been determined and/or whether such benefits are material or non-material. The aforementioned transactions must be disclosed in the notes to the financial statements for the same period and in the annual financial statements.
6. Members of BOD, Supervisory Board, the CEO, and their related persons must not use undisclosed information of VAB or disclose such information to others to perform related transactions.

Article 35. Transactions with related persons

1. When conducting transactions with related persons, VAB must sign written contracts based on the principles of equality and voluntariness.
2. The Supervisory Board has the right to request individuals required to disclose related interests as stipulated in VAB's Charter and shareholders holding at least 05% of VAB's voting shares, to provide and periodically update information on their related persons.

3. VAB applies necessary measures to prevent shareholders and their related persons from conducting transactions that cause loss of capital, assets, or other resources of VAB.

Article 36. Ensuring the legitimate rights of persons with related interests in VAB

1. VAB respects the legitimate rights of persons with interests related to VAB, including creditors, employees, VAB service users, suppliers, the community, and others with related interests in VAB.
2. VAB actively cooperates with persons with related interests through the following actions:
 - a. Providing creditors with all necessary information to help them assess VAB's business and financial status and make informed decisions.
 - b. Encouraging persons with related interests in VAB to provide opinions on business operations, financial conditions, and important decisions affecting their interests through direct contact with the BOD, the Supervisory Board, and the CEO.
 - c. Complying with laws on labor, environment, and social responsibilities.

CHAPTER VIII

PERFORMANCE EVALUATION, REWARDS, AND DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS FOR MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS, MEMBERS OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD, THE CEO, AND OTHER EXECUTIVES

Article 37. Methods of performance evaluation

Depending on the decision of the BOD and/or the Supervisory Board, the performance evaluation of Members of BOD, members of Supervisory Board, the CEO, and Other Executives may be conducted through one or more of the following methods:

1. Self-assessment;
2. Periodic evaluation every 06 months;
3. Annual evaluation conducted at the end of the year;
4. Collection of feedback and confidence votes;
5. Other methods as determined by the BOD in each period.

Article 38. Performance evaluation criteria

The performance evaluation criteria for members of BOD, members of Supervisory Board, the CEO, and Other Executives shall include at least the following:

1. Performance of assigned tasks, including the level of completion, volume, quality, and efficiency of individual work and the development and operational results of the unit
2. Ethics, lifestyle, awareness, ideology, and compliance with VAB's Charter and laws;
3. Efforts in professional development, honesty and openness in work, organizational discipline, and a sense of responsibility in assigned tasks and positions held;
4. Management ability, work management style and attitude, and efforts to prevent bureaucracy, corruption, and wastefulness;
5. Teamwork, cooperation within the unit and with other units, and the level of trust and confidence among employees.

Article 39. Classification and evaluation

1. The classification and evaluation of members of BOD, members of Supervisory Board, the CEO, and Other Executives are conducted in accordance with VAB's regulations.
2. Performance evaluation documents related to members of BOD, members of Supervisory Board, the CEO, and Other Executives must be kept in their personal files at VAB.

Article 40. Rewards and disciplinary actions

1. Rewards
 - a. Members of BOD, members of Supervisory Board, the CEO, and Other Executives who achieve outstanding performance in governance, management, and other assigned tasks shall be considered for rewards in accordance with VAB's regulations.
 - b. The specific reward forms, criteria, procedures, and processes shall be implemented as per VAB's internal regulations in each period.
2. Disciplinary Actions and Compensation for Damages
 - a. If Members of BOD, members of Supervisory Board, the CEO, or Other Executives violate laws, VAB's Charter, or other internal regulations while performing their duties, they shall, depending on the nature, extent, and consequences of the violation, be subject to disciplinary actions or other measures as prescribed by laws and/or VAB's regulations, and shall be liable for any damages caused to VAB.
 - b. The principles, forms, procedures, and processes for handling disciplinary violations shall be implemented in accordance with VAB's Labor Regulations, Disciplinary Handling Regulations, and other relevant documents issued by VAB in each period.

CHAPTER IX

INFORMATION DISCLOSURE AND VIOLATION HANDLING

Article 41. Information Disclosure

The BOD is responsible for directing the development and issuance of the Information Disclosure Regulations and organizing information disclosure in compliance with laws and VAB's internal regulations.

Article 42. Violation Handling

1. If any VAB officer or employee (including members of BOD, members of Supervisory Board, the CEO, and Other Executives) is found to have violated this Regulation, the individual who discovers the violation must immediately report it to the Chairman of the BOD and/or the Head of the Supervisory Board.
2. Any violations of this Regulation shall be reviewed and subject to disciplinary actions by the BOD in accordance with laws and/or VAB's internal regulations. If the violation causes damage to VAB, the violator must compensate VAB for the damages.

CHAPTER X

IMPLEMENTATION PROVISIONS

Article 43. Effectiveness

1. This Regulation takes effect from the date of issuance.
2. In case of any conflict between the provisions of this Regulation and the VAB's Charter on the same matter, the provisions of the VAB's Charter shall prevail. In case of any conflict between this Regulation, the VAB' Charter, and laws on the same matter, the provisions of laws shall prevail.

3. Any matters not specified in this Regulation shall be governed by laws and VAB's internal regulations as issued in each period by the BOD and/or the CEO.
4. Amendments and supplements to this Regulation must be reviewed and decided by the GMS. After VAB's Internal Governance Regulation is approved by the GMS, the GMS shall assign the BOD to sign and issue the Regulation and implement the procedures for disclosing and reporting in accordance with the laws.
5. Transitional Provisions:
 - a. Managers, executives, and other positions at VAB elected or appointed before the effective date of VAB's Charter but not meeting the requirements of the VAB's Charter shall continue to hold their positions until the end of their term or the expiration of their appointment period.
 - b. The BOD of VAB elected before the effective date of VAB's Charter but not meeting the requirements of the VAB's Charter shall continue to operate until the end of its term.
 - c. If the number of members of Supervisory Board at VAB does not comply with VAB's Charter, the existing number of members of Supervisory Board shall remain unchanged until the end of the current term, unless VAB elects or appoints additional or replacement members for the Supervisory Board.

ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
CHAIRMAN

APPENDIX I

CONVENING ONLINE GMS MEETINGS AND ELECTRONIC VOTING METHODS

Article 1. Scope and subjects of application

1. This Appendix stipulates the organization of and attendance at the GMS (Annual or Extraordinary) of VAB in the form of an Online Meeting and stipulates voting via electronic methods for any form of meeting of shareholders at the Online GMS.
2. This Appendix applies to all shareholders of VAB and throughout the entire VAB system.

Article 2. Interpretation of terms

In this Appendix, the following terms shall be understood as follows:

- a. Charter refers to the currently effective Charter of VAB.
- b. Delegates refer shareholders, authorized representatives of shareholders attending the General Meeting of Shareholders and voting at the meeting.
- c. Online GMS refers to Annual or Extraordinary GMS of VAB held using electronic means to transmit audio and video via an online system connected to the internet, enabling Delegates to participate, exercise their voting rights, express opinions, raise questions, and perform other related rights. VAB may opt for:
 - i. Fully Online General Meeting of Shareholders: all Delegates participate online; or
 - ii. Partially Online General Meeting of Shareholders: Delegates may choose to attend either in person or online.
- d. Traditional general meeting refers to a meeting held at a single location where shareholders attend, discuss, and vote directly at the meeting.
- e. Electronic voting refer when Delegates vote through the Electronic Voting System at the time of the Shareholders' Meeting.
- f. Traditional voting refers to the process where Delegates vote directly at the Traditional General Meeting.
- g. Electronic voting system refers to the system designated and announced by VAB to provide Delegates with tools to exercise their voting rights during the online GMS
- h. Force majeure event refers to events beyond the control and will of the meeting convener and meeting chairman, which are unforeseen and cannot be remedied despite necessary measures being taken within reasonable capability. These include but are not limited to: natural disasters, fires, power outages, internet connection failures, technical incidents at the location where the Chairman conducts the meeting, orders or directives from the Government or other competent authorities, etc
- i. Final registration date refers to the working day designated by VAB to determine the list of shareholders entitled to attend and vote at the GMS, in accordance with VAB's notice and laws

Article 3. Principles for organizing online GMS and electronic voting

1. To be conducted in compliance with laws, the Charter, and this Appendix.
2. To ensure appropriateness with actual circumstances and conditions, providing efficiency and safety in organizing the GMS.

3. To ensure that no required procedures under laws and the Charter are omitted, fully protecting shareholders' legitimate interests as in a physical GMS
4. To ensure transparency, public disclosure, and accurate vote counting.

Article 4. Cases for organizing online GMS and voting principles

1. The organization of an online GMS shall be conducted based on VAB's actual circumstances and conditions, as well as societal requirements, while ensuring compliance with laws on GMS organization, including but not limited to the following cases:
 - a. When epidemics, natural disasters, or travel restrictions (domestic and/or international) are in effect.
 - b. When social distancing or lockdown measures are mandated by a competent state authority.
 - c. Other objective reasons and/or cases where the BOD deems it impractical and/or impossible to organize an in-person GMS.
2. Conditions for conducting an online GMS
 - a. The number of Delegates attending the online GMS (in the first, second, and third convening sessions) complies with the provisions of VAB's current Charter.
 - b. The online GMS system and electronic voting system must ensure that the main venue's system connection remains continuous, stable, and minimally interrupted; the main venue must meet requirements for sound, lighting, power supply, electronic equipment, and other necessary facilities to support information, image, and data transmission; ensure information security and comply with the Law on Cybersecurity and relevant regulations of the State Bank of Vietnam; the meeting and electronic data of the online GMS must be stored and retrievable per applicable regulations.
3. Voting principles for each form of GMS organization:
 - a. Fully online GMS: Electronic voting must be used for all voting activities.
 - b. Partially online or in-person GMS: A combination of traditional voting and electronic voting may be used depending on actual conditions, needs, and laws.
 - c. In the event that new matters requiring a vote arise during the GMS, Delegates vote in the manner specified in point b of this clause, corresponding to their form of participation.
4. The GMS assigns and authorizes the BOD/Convener to determine the format of organizing and voting at the annual and/or extraordinary GMS (in-person and/or online meetings, traditional voting and/or electronic voting, or other electronic forms permitted by laws) and to notify shareholders upon making such a decision based on the actual situation and conditions at the time of the planned meeting.

Article 5. Procedures for conducting online GMS and electronic voting

The organization of an online GMS and electronic voting or other electronic forms permitted by laws must be conducted comprehensively and in sequence, ensuring that the required procedures are carried out within the same timeframe as an in-person GMS in accordance with the Charter and laws (finalizing the list of shareholders entitled to attend; sending the meeting invitation along with the agenda and meeting documents; registering shareholders/authorizing for attendance; determining the Chairman of the meeting, approving the agenda, designating the Secretary, and electing the Vote Counting Committee; discussions and voting; preparing and approving the GMS Minutes and Resolutions; and disclosing relevant information...) as well as ensuring the conditions for convening the GMS as stipulated in the Charter and laws (quorum of shareholders for holding the meeting)

Article 6. Conditions for attending and authorizing attendance at the online GMS and electronic voting

1. All shareholders listed in the list of shareholders entitled to attend the GMS of VAB, as per VAB's notice of meeting rights, are eligible to participate in the online GMS and electronic voting in accordance with this Appendix.
2. Shareholders may attend the online GMS and vote electronically either directly or by authorizing an organization or another individual to do so on their behalf.
3. The authorization for participation in the online GMS and electronic voting are performed as follows:
 - a. For individual shareholders: They may authorize another individual to represent them and vote on all or part of their owned shares.
 - b. For institutional shareholders: Institutions holding at least 10% of the total common shares may authorize up to 03 representatives. Institutions holding less than 10% of the total common shares may authorize only 01 representatives.
 - c. Shareholders must fully provide the necessary information for authorization, especially the details of the authorized party, to facilitate the issuance of login user, password, and other identification factors (if any). The required information includes full name, ID Card/Citizen Identity Card/Passport/Business Registration Number, phone number, and address.
 - d. Effectiveness of the authorization: Shareholders' authorization only take effect when all the following conditions are met:
 - i. When the shareholder has fully completed the online authorization form and successfully submitted the online authorization.
 - ii. The authorization document must be printed according to the online authorization template, duly signed, clearly stating the full name, and stamped with a seal (for organizations) by both the authorizing party and the authorized party.
 - iii. VAB receives the original authorization document at least 04 days before the official opening of the GMS.
 - e. Once the authorization becomes effective as specified in point d of this clause, the authorized party receives access credentials for attending the online GMS and electronic voting via the phone number provided in the authorization document.
 - f. Revocation of authorization for shareholders who have authorized attendance at the online GMS and electronic voting: The shareholders must submit an official written request to VAB to revoke the online authorization. The revocation shall only take effect if VAB receives the written request before the official opening of the GMS.

- g. The revocation of authorization is not effective if the authorized representative has already cast an electronic vote on any matter in the agenda of the GMS.

Article 7. Providing information and login instructions for attending the online GMS and conducting electronic voting

1. Delegates receive an online meeting invitation letter containing instructions and a link to access the registration for attending the GMS, as well as the meeting documents.
2. Delegates registering for the online GMS follow the instructions provided in the invitation letter to submit their information and confirm their delegate status before attending the online GMS. The registration of delegates as per regulations serves as the basis for determining the shareholder attendance ratio required to convene the Online GMS.
3. After verifying the Delegate's valid status, VAB shall send each Delegate a unique set of login credentials, including a user and password, to the phone number provided registered by the Delegate. Logging in with the correct user and password provided by VAB shall be deemed as the Delegate's confirmation of attendance at the General Meeting. The Delegate uses the provided user and password to join the General Meeting as instructed in the Invitation Letter issued by VAB.
4. Delegates who do not register their information and confirm their delegate status with VAB as stipulated in Clause 2 of this Article shall not be allowed to attend the online GMS but may still participate in the in-person GMS (if the GMS is held partially online).
5. In case a Delegate intends to register a change or newly register identifying information that differs from the information previously registered with VAB, they must contact VAB to update the information before the final registration date as stipulated by VAB.
6. VAB shall not be responsible if a Delegate fails to update and/or fails to timely update new identifying information with VAB, resulting in an impact on their participation in the GMS.

Article 8. Method of recording delegates attending the online GMS

1. A Delegate shall be recorded as attending the online GMS when they access the online system using the provided credentials and in accordance with the registration method stipulated in Article 7 of this Appendix.
2. A Delegate's participation in the online GMS through the online system shall be considered equivalent to direct attendance, and voting results conducted via the electronic voting system shall have the same validity as in-person voting at the GMS.
3. The online system shall start recording delegate registrations for attending the online GMS 60 minutes before the scheduled opening time or at an earlier time as notified by VAB to shareholders.
4. The Delegate Verification Committee shall base its determination of the number of delegates attending the Online GMS on the login information from the delegates' access accounts.

Article 9. Discussion at the online GMS

1. Principles:
 - a. Discussions shall only be conducted within the designated timeframe and within the scope of the agenda items presented at the online GMS.
 - b. Only Delegates are permitted to participate in the discussion.
 - c. Delegates may express their opinions directly to the General Meeting via the audio and video system connected to the Meeting Organizing Committee or through the chat screen with the Meeting Secretariat.
 - d. The Meeting Secretariat shall arrange the Delegates' discussion topics in the order of registration and submit them to the Chairman.
2. Response to Delegates' Opinions:
 - a. Based on the discussion content, the Chairperson of the meeting or a designated member appointed by the Chairperson shall respond to the delegates' opinions.
 - b. If time constraints prevent certain questions from being addressed during the meeting, VAB shall provide responses afterward.

Article 10. Method of electronic voting

1. Voting methods:
 - a. Delegates select one of the three voting options: “approve”, “disapprove”, or “no opinion” for each matter presented for voting at the GMS, as configured in the electronic voting system.
 - b. Delegates must then confirm their vote (for electronic voting) to ensure the system records their voting result.
2. Additional regulations for electronic voting:
 - a. Electronic voting may only be conducted if the Delegates registered for the online GMS as stipulated in Article 7 of this Appendix.
 - b. Electronic voting shall be conducted during the meeting, following the progress of the meeting, for each matter requiring a vote in the GMS agenda. Delegates shall vote according to the direction of the Chairman/Presiding Officer for the matters requiring a vote, in compliance with the Charter.
 - c. If a Delegate remains connected but does not vote, it shall be understood that the delegate has “no opinion” from voting on that matter.
 - d. If new matters arise outside the announced agenda, Delegates may vote additionally. If a Delegate does not cast a vote on such newly raised matters, it shall be considered that the Delegate has “no opinion” from voting on those matters.
 - e. During the GMS, the Chairman must directly announce the voting period for each matter subject to voting. Once the voting period ends, the system will no longer accept additional votes from delegates.
 - f. Delegates may change their voting result within the voting period but cannot cancel their vote (including votes on additional matters not originally in the agenda). The electronic voting system shall only record the final voting result at the end of the voting session, as announced by the Chairman.
 - g. If a Delegate disconnects before the electronic voting period ends, any votes cast the Election and Vote Counting Committee right at the Meeting before closing. These results shall be recorded in the Minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 13. Approval ratio for online GMS resolutions

The approval ratio for resolutions of the online GMS for each voting matter shall be the same as the approval ratio for resolutions of the in-person GMS as stipulated in the Charter.

Article 14. Minutes and resolutions of the online GMS

1. The location recorded in the minutes of the Online GMS shall be the place where the Chairman is present to conduct the meeting. This location must be within the territory of Vietnam;
2. The minutes and resolutions of the online GMS shall be prepared and approved in the same manner as the minutes and resolutions of an in-person GMS, in accordance with the Charter.

Article 15. Rights and obligations of Delegates attending the online GMS and electronic voting

1. Attend the GMS and vote on all matters within the authority of the GMS, as stipulated by laws, the Charter, and this Appendix.
2. Have the right to express opinions and discuss directly at the online GMS as stipulated in Article 9 of this Appendix.
3. Must prepare and use suitable online meeting devices with an internet connection to ensure the ability to follow the proceedings of the online GMS.
4. Delegates are responsible for keeping their login user, password, and other identification factors (if any) confidential to ensure that only they can access the online GMS and vote on the electronic voting system. All voting results recorded by the delegate on the electronic voting system shall be considered final, and the delegate shall be fully responsible before the laws and VAB for their voting results.
5. If a delegate discovers that their login user, password, or other identification factors (if any) have been lost, stolen, exposed, or suspected of being compromised, they must immediately notify VAB to take timely action. This can be done by contacting the Organizing Committee to block the login credentials and security devices. The delegate shall bear full responsibility for any damage, loss, or other risks incurred before VAB receives the notification, if caused by the Delegate's fault.
6. The Delegate agrees that VAB may provide their information to third parties (if any, such as service providers supporting the online GMS and electronic voting...) to facilitate the Delegate's participation in the online GMS and electronic voting.

Article 16. Force majeure events

In the event of force majeure events that cannot be rectified to allow the GMS meeting to proceed and/or the voting/election cannot continue within 60 minutes, the Chairperson shall declare a temporary suspension of the Meeting; all contents that have been validly voted on/elected by the Meeting (including data recorded on the electronic system) prior to the declaration of suspension shall retain their legal validity. The continuation of the meeting and/or the continuation or selection of the voting/election method for other issues that have not yet been approved shall be resolved in accordance with the GMS meeting regulations approved when conducting the meeting.

Article 17. Effectiveness

1. This Appendix shall take effect in accordance with the effective date of the Internal Governance Regulation.
2. This Appendix is an integral and inseparable part of the Internal Governance Regulation.
3. Matters related to the organization of the online GMS and electronic voting that are not specified in this Appendix shall be implemented in accordance with laws, the Charter, internal governance regulation, and other relevant documents of VAB.
4. In the event of any amendments to the Charter and/or laws that result in discrepancies between the provisions of this Appendix and the Charter and/or such laws, the new provisions of the Charter and/or laws shall prevail.
5. All shareholders, members of the BOD, Supervisory Board, the CEO, and Other Executives, as well as all Units and employees across VAB's system, are responsible for complying with this Appendix.
